

Study Abroad at the University of Strathclyde

Frequently Asked Questions

How long is the program?

- Students will spend an entire semester at the University of Strathclyde, the third largest University in Scotland, beginning in September and ending in December. Students will be home before the Christmas holidays.

How are students graded for the classes abroad?

- Examinations for typical University of Strathclyde students is after Christmas, so students coming from SDSU will be provided alternate assessments prior to their departure from the University of Strathclyde.
- Grades on final assessments will be determined as Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory which will be translated to Credit or No Credit, respectively.

How much is it?

- Tuition prices are the same, however there are additional costs for living. Costs are comparable to living in an on-campus residence hall at SDSU. Price for 2010-2011 year was $8,208. That price includes tuition for the semester, housing at the University of Strathclyde, and a stipend of money given to the student upon arrival at Strathclyde to be used for food.
- Prices subject to change by year.

Who do I pay tuition to?

- Tuition, as well as housing is paid the same way, through the Student Account Services on the SDSU website: <http://bfa.sdsu.edu/fm/co/sfs/>

What are the accommodations abroad?

- Students will be living in University of Strathclyde's John Anderson Campus Village.

- Everyone has their own single bedroom and shares a bathroom, kitchen and living areas with their roommates.
- All of the apartments are self-catering, with well-equipped shared kitchens.
- Bedrooms are equipped with internet and a telephone that makes calls within the other on campus residence halls.

Are the accommodations safe?

- There's an on-site management team in the Village Office, plus a Night watchmen and a watched Closed-circuit television system sent back to University Security Control for added peace of mind.

What is there is to do in Glasgow, Scotland?

- It is the largest city in Scotland with a very unique and diverse culture. The city is filled with museums devoted to religion & history, art galleries, rivers, parks, shopping, theatres, pubs, football (soccer), cathedrals, and so much more.
- The John Anderson campus, where students will be residing is only blocks away from City Centre and one of Glasgow's most famous landmarks, George Square, the site of many public statues and the elaborate Victorian Glasgow City chambers.