Assistant Professor: Language Clinical Scientist - Bilingual emphasis

San Diego State University invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in the School of Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences. A Ph.D. in Language Science and Disorders or related field (e.g., speech-language pathology, speech, language, hearing sciences, linguistics, psychology), excellence in teaching, strong research abilities, and a commitment to working in a multicultural environment with students from diverse backgrounds are required. Clinical experience, certification (CCC-SLP), and/or eligibility for state licensure are preferred. Primary responsibilities include teaching at the undergraduate and graduate (MA and Ph.D.) levels, supervising theses/dissertations, and pursuing a research program in the area of bilingualism and language disorders.

We are seeking a person with expertise in bilingualism research with clinical populations, in particular a focus on childhood bilingualism in speakers of Spanish, although other age groups and languages may be considered. Additional areas of expertise or research focus may include (but are not limited to) cross-linguistic research with second language learners, language and literacy acquisition, or language loss in bilinguals

Salary dependent on candidate's qualifications and budget considerations.

Join 18 other full-time faculty and over 200 students in a stimulating work environment, excellent lab/clinical facilities, and a beautiful place to live (see more information at <http://slhs.sdsu.edu>).

SDSU is a large, diverse, urban university and Hispanic-Serving Institution with a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusive excellence. Our campus community is diverse in many ways, including race, religion, color, sex, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, pregnancy, medical condition, and covered veteran status. We strive to build and sustain a welcoming environment for all. SDSU is seeking applicants with demonstrated experience in and/or commitment to teaching and working effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds and members of underrepresented groups.

Apply via Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/25815>. Review of completed applications will begin December 1, 2014 and continue until position is filled; employment to begin Fall semester 2015. For questions, please contact Dr. Sonja Pruitt-Lord at spruitt@mail.sdsu.edu.

The person holding this position is considered a "mandated reporter" under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirement set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

San Diego State University is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate against persons on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity and expression, marital status, age, disability, pregnancy, medical condition, or covered veteran status.
