

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF SPEECH, LANGUAGE, AND HEARING SCIENCES
SCHOOL DIRECTOR POSITION

The SDSU SCHOOL OF SPEECH, LANGUAGE, AND HEARING SCIENCES (SLHS) is seeking a person to serve as Director. This individual should have significant research, teaching, and clinical experiences; the position represents a 12-month appointment at the rank of Professor. Major responsibilities include administering the budgetary elements aligned with academic and clinical programs of the School, and providing leadership to further advance its future.

Qualifications include a Ph.D. in Communication Sciences and Disorders or a related area, evidence of a strong research program and experience with research and clinical faculty, leadership skills, experience with extramural funding and/or development and management of clinical training programs, strong organizational and interpersonal skills for collaborating with internal and external constituencies, evidence of achievements in teaching and scholarship consistent with the rank of Professor, an understanding of accreditation policies and procedures, and commitment to serving a diverse population.

The School offers the BA in Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences and the MA in Speech-Language Pathology, as well as two doctoral degrees: the Au.D. and the Ph.D. in Language and Communicative Disorders, both joint programs with the University of California, San Diego. The School also operates two active clinics – the Speech-Language Clinic and the Audiology Clinic - that serve as major teaching and research resources for the program. The School has affiliations with a wide variety of clinics, hospitals, and schools that offer a wide range of research opportunities and teaching support for faculty and students. Additional information about the University is available at <http://www.sdsu.edu>. More information about the program is available at <http://slhs.sdsu.edu>.

SDSU is a large, diverse, urban university and Hispanic-Serving Institution with a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusive excellence. Our campus community is diverse in many ways, including race, religion, color, sex, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, pregnancy, medical condition, and covered veteran status. We strive to build and sustain a welcoming environment for all. SDSU is seeking applicants with demonstrated experience in and/or commitment to teaching and working effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds and members of underrepresented groups.

Apply via Interfolio at <https://apply.interfolio.com/36879>. Review of completed applications will begin November 23, 2016 and continue until the position is filled; employment to begin Fall semester 2017. For questions, please contact Dr. Karen Emmorey (kemmorey@mail.sdsu.edu). Formal interviews of candidates will begin in December 2016.

The person holding this position is considered a "mandated reporter" under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

San Diego State University is a Title IX, equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, marital status, age, disability, or veteran status, including veterans of the Vietnam era.